OVERVIEW

Angela F. Storey practices in the firm's civil litigation group, with an emphasis in construction, business, and personal injury. In her construction practice, Angela represents owners, contractors, subcontractors, surety companies and design professionals, handling a broad spectrum of issues including mechanics' liens, stop notices, defect claims, bid protests, and delay claims. In her business practice, Angela represents companies and individuals involving contract disputes, landlord-tenant issues, and employment litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Angela was a trial attorney for a major insurance company and uses her significant trial background in her current practice.

A native of Santa Clara County, Angela attended St. Francis High School in Mountain View before completing her degree in International Economics at University of California at Los Angeles. She returned to the Bay Area to attend Santa Clara University School of Law. Angela and her husband live in San Jose with their two large dogs, a Hovawart and a Borzoi.
