OVERVIEW

Wesley joined MMCN as an associate in 2005 as a member of the litigation group where he primarily practices construction, business and real estate litigation. Wesley received his J.D. from Santa Clara University where he finished in the top 3% of his class, graduating magna cum laude and as a member of the Order of the Coif. While in law school, Wesley served as the Senior Comments Editor for the Santa Clara Law Review and volunteered at the Alexander Law Clinic in the business division. For his undergraduate education, Wesley attended Vanderbilt University and graduated in 2000, receiving a B.A. in Economics and a minor in business administration. While at Vanderbilt University, Wesley played lacrosse and worked as a teaching assistant in accounting.

Wesley was born and raised in Santa Barbara where he attended the Cate School and served as assistant lacrosse coach while working for the Santa Barbara District Attorney's Office. In his free time, he enjoys racing in triathlons, surfing, playing tennis, skiing and cooking.
